Welcome to the Kaplan University Writing Center (KUWC)! In addition to the writing skills, instruction, and feedback you receive in your courses, the Kaplan University Writing Center has tutoring services and resources to help ensure your success as an effective writer during your college experience.

Our robust services include interactive tutoring and audio-video recordings. In most cases, you will have the option to type, read, and listen to receive support; however, some services may require sound on your computer and a headset if available.

Access Live Tutoring from the Writing Center homepage by selecting Writing Tutor (Figure 4).

Each month, the Writing Center hosts live webinars in the Academic Support Center’s Adobe Connect webinar room. For the schedule as well as archived, pre-recorded sessions, please visit the Writing Center homepage and select “Writing Workshops” (Figure 5).
Submit a Paper or Question

Use our quick and easy submission form (Figure 6) to submit a paper or question and receive tutor feedback. Papers and questions may be sent 24 hours a day, and students will receive an answer from a writing tutor typically within 24 to 48 hours during the week and within 72 hours during the weekend.

The paper review service is offered to provide suggestions for writing improvement, especially in terms of purpose, organization, and grammar. Rather than editing or rewriting your paper, tutors will provide you with a better understanding of areas that need improvement or development. Please note: This is not a proofreading or paper correction service.

Paper Review and Q&A Services

Kaplan Writing Center Paper Review Service

The Kaplan University Writing Center will respond with written and video comments within 24 to 48 hours a day. During extremely busy times, you may take up to 72 hours to receive a response. Papers are reviewed in the order in which they are received.

About Paper Review:
When you submit a paper for review, a Kaplan University Writing Center tutor will review your writing and provide feedback within 24-48 hours.

Tutors will provide suggestions for writing improvement, especially in terms of purpose, organization, and grammar. This includes a review of the purpose, audience, and tone. The Writing Center will not provide a written report or write your paper. Instead, we focus on helping you identify your strengths and areas of development as a writer.

Your Paper Review: The service does not provide substantive grade changes, grade suggestions, or thesis defenses. If you need these services, you may contact your Kaplan University professor.

We do not provide feedback on exams.
Become a stronger, more confident, and independent writer with 24-hour access to the Writing Reference Library featuring writing guides, podcasts, and video tutorials on all facets of the writing process including the use of sources, revision, reading, and editing strategies, style, and grammar fundamentals. Load the tutorials in your browser or download them for use offline or on a smart phone, tablet, or mp3 device. The Writing Reference Library can be accessed from the KUWC homepage (Figure 7).

The Kaplan Guide to Successful Writing (2010) (Figure 8), written especially for Kaplan students, introduces college-level writing and research, the writing process, and the fundamentals of Standard American English. It is available in text and audio formats. Access the guide on the Writing Center homepage.
